Baltic Studies

Immanuel Kant Baltic Federal University

Degree or qualification is awarded: Master

Language of study: Russian, English
Mode of study: full-time
Duration: 2 years
Availability of free education: yes
Price: 1 450 USD per year

Programme webpage at the university website: https://www.kantiana.ru/education/programms/2010-2014/

Programme curator: Berendeev Mikhail Vladimirovich
Tel.: +79506730303
E-mail: mberendeev@kantiana.ru

The program 41.04.04 Political Science, specialization "Baltic research" is develop common cultural and professional competences necessary for a political scientist in the field of foreign relations, cross-border and trans-boundary cooperation in the Baltic Sea region, as well as research, expert and consulting activities related to the issues of European cooperation, European integration processes in the Baltic Sea and regional geographic research.

The program curriculum includes in-depth study of many urgent modern issues such as:

- political cooperation in Europe,
- history of European politics,
- history and modern institutional structure of the EU,
- development of political and party systems in the Baltic Sea region,
- relations between the European Union and modern Russia,
- Baltic vector of the European integration,
- humanitarian dimension in the relations between countries, transformationa of international cooperation in the Baltic Sea Region due to the process of globalization and regionalization,
- comparative studies in the field of European political systems.

The Master's Program involves the study of science and technology as well as political components of modern political relations within the European Union and the Baltic Sea region.

Specializations within this programme