Russian Language for Beginners is a program for all those who wish to study Russian language. In our classes, we will provide you with materials to learn and speak Russian sounds, words and phrases. You will also learn how to read and write in Russian, as well as to build and understand simple texts. During the first half of the course students will also be taught how to speak about themselves and their families in order to support conversation in everyday situations such as in a shop, bank or pharmacy e.g.

By the end of the course, students will be able to speak spontaneously and quickly with native speakers of Russian, as well as to express a points of view and highlighting their activities past and present within the right context and grammatical forms to a native Russian speaker. The aims of the course will be to speak and communicate in Russian in many different spheres of activity in fields such as tourism, business, politics, education and even social networking.

During this 3 semesters programme students take 20 hours of classes each week.

At the end of the course, all students are invited to be examined for the Russian government's certificate II level of Russian language (B2) under the system TORFL, which is the Russian Language equivalent of IELTS in comparison to the English Language system.
