The Bachelor's Degree Program "Oil and Gas Engineering" covers three major fields:

Oil and gas fields development, including exploration of the shelf area and the Arctic regions;

Exploitation of oil and gas wells for the effective extraction of subsurface hydrocarbons;

Drilling and construction of production wells.

The program is supported by leading oilfield service companies of Russia: they provide a wide range of special software for educational purposes ("Petrel", "PipeSim", "Eclipse", etc) and organize internship for students.

Partners of the School of Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering are Rosneft, Gazprom, the Siberian Branch of the Russian Academy of Science and other.
