Description: Immanuel Kant Baltic Federal University offers short-term and long-term courses for international students of beginner (A1) and intermediate (B1) levels.
The application is open throughout the year and classes start when there are at least 5 applicants. The course for beginners develops basic everyday skills (communication in the street, on public transport, in shops and cafes), give an overall understanding of the principles of Russian grammar and pronunciation. The course at pre-intermediate level helps establish communicative skills, improve or activate already existing knowledge of the Russian language.

Admission: to sign up for one of our courses you need to send an application detailing your proposed duration of stay, your study objectives and proposed length of the course to ruslang@kantiana.ru. Please contact us to request any additional information. Please see the deadlines for the courses in the section Timetable.
