Specializations within this programme

IP Management Strategy

PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The program trains heads and experts of patent departments of innovative corporations, as well as startup CTOs.

Students can choose between the following specializations to create an individual learning experience based on their career strategy and goals:

- Industrial and Copyright Law
- Organization and Management of Intellectual Property at an Enterprise

Both specializations pay significant attention to the effective protection of intellectual property in accordance with modern Russian and international legal frameworks, solution of tasks for the development of research-intensive entrepreneurship, and filing for patents for secret inventions.
