International students can take a study placement at Lobachevsky University for one or two semesters. A study placement that meets all the individual educational priorities will be developed for each student. Exchange students can choose the individual programme from the whole study programme offered by the department, maximum workload of 30 ECTS credit points per semester.

The language of instruction is Russian or English or French depending on the programme.

Upon the successful completion of the study placement international students will receive certificates with the information in English or Russian about courses passed, exams taken and grades received. These certificates can also include the information about the workload of each discipline based on the unified European credit system ECTS.

Lobachevsky University has a number of partners in the framework of the European program Erasmus+. If you wish to apply for an Erasmus Grant you must discuss this with the Erasmus+ coordinator at the International Office.
