

Foreign Regional Studies

Peter the Great St. Petersburg Polytechnic University

Degree or qualification is awarded: Bachelor of Foreign Regional Studies

Language of study: Russian

Mode of study: full-time

Duration: 4 years

Availability of free education: yes

Price: 198 000 - 207 000 rubles

Programme curator: Mrs. Irina Baranova

Tel.:

E-mail: baranova.ta@flspbGPU.ru

Studies on Northern Europe and the People's Republic of China, their population, history, ethnography, economy, and culture, religion, language, and literature; practical tips on regional politics.

Specializations within this programme

European studies

The programme focuses on the training of qualified specialists in the comprehensive study of the Nordic countries: their population, history and ethnography, economies and cultures, religion, languages, and literature. Conception: the programme shapes the image of the Nordic countries, their international activities and cooperation with the Russian Federation. Bachelors of Foreign Regional Studies are prepared for the following professional activities: organizational communication; information analysis; editing and publishing; cultural education; teaching; research. Graduates can start their career as consultants, personal assistants (?), translators and interpreters in the Finnish (or Swedish) language working for the government bodies, research and education institutions of the Russian Federation, representatives of the Finnish (or Swedish) companies in different areas of activity in the Russian Federation as well as specialists of the Russian companies operating in Finland (or Sweden).

Asian studies (China)

The programme focuses on the training of qualified specialists in the comprehensive study of the People's Republic of China: its population, history and ethnography, economy and culture, religion, language and literature. The conception: the programme shapes the image of the People's Republic of China, its international activity and cooperation with the Russian Federation. Bachelors of Foreign Regional Studies are prepared for the following professional activities: organizational communication; information analysis; editing and publishing; cultural education; teaching; research. Graduates can start their career as consultants, personal assistants (?), translators and interpreters of the Chinese language working for the government bodies, research and education institutions of the Russian Federation, representatives of the Chinese companies in different areas of activity in the Russian Federation as well as specialists of the Russian companies operating in the Chinese market.