Programme Focus

The training of bachelors in the sphere of state and municipal management is aimed at forming competencies for the organization of territorial management systems, ensuring rational management of economic and social processes at the national and regional level, at the level of cities, districts and other municipalities, based on the interests of the population.

Training in the bachelor's program "State and municipal management" assumes the formation of special trajectories of training in the 3-4th year:

- State and municipal management;
- Management of the development of the city, municipal formation;
- Management of social development of territories;
- Infrastructural support of territorial development.

Programme advantages

When implementing the bachelor's programme, an innovative model of training is used: competence approach, modularity, active, interactive and other modern educational technologies.

Among the professional disciplines, in particular, are studied: "Fundamentals of state and municipal management", "State and municipal service", "Adoption and execution of state decisions", "Ethics of state and municipal service", "Foundations of record keeping", "Business communications", "Project Management" and many others.

Practices are built in such a way that students consistently pass all levels of power structures of municipal and state administrations, in municipalities, prefectures, the State Duma of the Russian Federation, committees and ministries of the Russian Federation, the Accounting Chamber of the Russian Federation, in similar structures of the constituent entities of the Russian Federation.

This programme is implemented in cooperation with the Shandong University (China) (the possibility of "learning included").
