Educational project Russian Studies in Real Russia is aimed at increasing and upgrading students' knowledge in academic field of Russian Studies, namely in historical and modern aspects of Russia, Russian lifestyle and unique Russian culture, alongside mastering the Russian language.

We offer Russian language courses to students of different levels – from complete beginners to advanced learners. Russian Language lessons are conducted on daily basis, 5 days a week, for 90 minutes per day.

During the program participants will have extracurricular activities. Lectures, seminars, tours and meetings will not only be conducted by UrFU professors and teachers, but also by special Russian guests who will share online with our students the untold stories about Russian culture, Russian art, sport, history and politics.

Upon successful completion of the program students will receive certificates from Ural Federal University and 4 ECTS.

Russian Studies in Real Russia offers an opportunity to get knowledge and experience online and remotely, from the comfort of one's own home!
