

The Principles of Osteopathic Diagnostics in Manual Therapy. Accreditation

I.M. Sechenov First Moscow State Medical University

Degree or qualification is awarded: based on the results of successful mastering of the additional educational program, students receive a certificate of accreditation in the chosen specialty. After passing the certification exam students receive a specialist certificate.

Language of study:

Mode of study: full-time, distance learning

Duration: 144 hours

Availability of free education: no

Price:

Programme curator: Svetlana M. Rykova

Tel.: 84957083914

E-mail: ums-ipo@yandex.ru

After completing the additional educational program – Accreditation in "Manual Therapy" the doctor acquires new knowledge and improves his/her competencies in the following areas:

- General principles and methodological basis of diagnostics and correction in manual therapy, osteopathy.
- Soft tissue mobilization techniques in manual therapy and osteopathy.
- General osteopathic treatment.
- The principles of osteopathic diagnostics and correction of somatic dysfunctions of the spine and pelvis.
- The functional approach in manual Therapy and osteopathy.
- The principles of osteopathic diagnostics and correction of somatic dysfunctions of the urinary and gastrointestinal tract.

Specializations within this programme