

Pharmacy

I.M. Sechenov First Moscow State Medical University

Degree or qualification is awarded: Certificate of Accreditation

Language of study:

Mode of study: distance learning

Duration: 144 hours

Availability of free education: no

Price:

Programme curator: Tatiana Yu. Glazkova

Tel.: +79267022521

E-mail: glazkova2009@yandex.ru

The program of accreditation for specialists with a secondary pharmaceutical education.

The purpose of the additional professional education of pharmacists on the specialty "Pharmacy" is to acquire stable professional competencies.

Students who successfully master the program will have a new professional competencies that include the ability/availability to:

1. Know: regulatory and legal framework regulating pharmaceutical activities, labor issues, sociological methods of management.
2. To be able to apply knowledge of the labor legislation, case management techniques in pharmaceutical organizations and drugs wholesale enterprises, apply the relevant legislation in the field of medicines.
3. Be capable of management in pharmaceutical organizations, methods of quality control of drugs for medical use, and other goods of pharmaceutical assortment, new technologies of drug manufacturing, methods of personnel management, methods of assortment management, search methods and use of pharmaceutical information, primary accounting skills, skills of administration, storage and dispensing of drugs for medical use, and others pharmaceutical products, sanitary regime organization skills, pharmaceutical counseling skills.

Specializations within this programme