The Program will equip you with the academic knowledge and practical skills required for being a successful teacher in the 21st century professional environment. You will have two options — Russian or English as a medium of instruction, depending on your pre-selected teaching major. You will be prepared to create your own teaching materials and courses for various target groups in digital environments. Our alumni will be able to apply effective strategies and design tailor-made online courses. They will acquire the graphic design skills for business and academic purposes.
