The aim of the course is to strengthen student's knowledge of complex verbal and temporal forms. Students will be able to understand major events and ideas contained in the text, participate in conversations on unfamiliar topics, represent and protect their views, plans and ideas paying attention to the sequence of statements.

Graduates of the course can deal with most of the situations in everyday life and are able to take part in conversations without preparations.

They will manage to tell the main idea from a film or a novel paying attention to the logical structure and the chronology of events. Students will also be skilled at writing a personal letter or a simple coherent text after completing the course.
