This program pays the most attention to spoken Russian language. A considerable amount of learning sessions are held outdoors. Students are provided with guided tours and training sessions in the urban environment. Students attend museums and sightseeing attractions of St. Petersburg and its suburbs. In the course of such learning sessions they get acquainted with Russian cultural heritage and immerse themselves in Russian language. Group programs could be developed upon preliminary agreement. The full course lasts for 1 weeks and 36 academic hours.

Seasonal School programs includes lectures (theory), vocational training, practice and guided tours in St. Petersburg and its suburbs (depending on weather; about 2 tours per week; entrance fees are paid by the students):

- City tour
- Peter and Paul Fortress
- Hermitage
- Peterhof
- Kronshtadt
- Tsarskoye Selo
