NanoFuture SCAMT Workshop Week (NSWW) is a brand new format of summer schools. During the workshop, you will work on your own project in one of the most modern fields of nanotechnologies and get practical professional skills.

NSWW is a great opportunity not only to challenge yourself in a new sphere but also to deepen your knowledge in your research field.

The list of possible projects:

- Create luminescent spider silk
- Synthesize nanodrugs
- Become a top-teacher
- Study the energy of life-biofuel cell
- Rule the microbial community, etc.

Besides practical project, you will have an opportunity to learn about new applications of nanotechnologies in the modern world: from Nanopharmacy and inkjet printing to Microbiology and Green Chemistry.
