A one week summer school is an exciting journey for Russian and international young people from the neighbouring countries to assemble a puzzle of cultures, in order to learn how to collaborate and do things together.

Throughout the course, the participants will have trainings on generating creative ideas and implementing them in real life in different spheres: education, entrepreneurship, social field, ecology, etc. Young people will raise their awareness about their cultures which lead the way we do things, and would do cases to solve problems when cultures collide.

The program includes sightseeing and cultural activities, as well.

To graduate, participants will create joint projects for further implementation in the nearest future.

Language of instruction: English

Fees: 15.000 roubles

The course fee covers tuition only.
