The program is designed to train an expert analyst embedded in modern trends in international strategic communication.

Free professional knowledge of two foreign languages, one of which is English, and the second or third – Eastern or Western, creates an opportunity for semester training of our students in foreign partner universities of the Institute. Native speakers of Western and Eastern languages participate in the teaching.

A unique feature of the educational modules offered in our program is the inclusion in them in the 5th semester of large sections in English, with a total volume of 30 credits, which creates optimal conditions for semester training on the Program of foreign students from partner universities.

Possibility of language internships abroad during the holiday period.
