SAS's BA program offers the most international undergraduate education in Russia. It proceeds from a liberal arts and sciences philosophy. Accordingly, in addition to providing specialized majors, our program is designed to mobilize interdisciplinary breadth, critical thinking, communication, and leadership skills.

The SAS BA program offers a world-class education delivered in the English language. It features:

- professors from 17 countries, the majority of whom received their PhDs from universities ranked in the top 100 in the world (according to THE and QS World University Rankings);
- Seven majors, which correspond to contemporary practices in relevant disciplines at world-class universities;
- A liberal arts and sciences education, in which students select a major at the end of their second year of study and freely choose one-third of their courses from diverse electives;
- An individual approach and interactive learning, with less than 20 students per class in 80% of courses;
- Internships, exchange programs, visiting professors from foreign and Russian universities, and guest lectures by prominent figures in business, academia, and the arts.
