The basis of this master's degree is the author's courses of leading specialists in archaeology and history; special attention is paid to familiarization with modern domestic and foreign methods and mastering practical skills in monitoring, management and examination of archaeological heritage objects. The master's program is focused on the fundamental professional training of graduates in the chosen specialization.

The uniqueness of the educational program is that there are no universities in Russia that carry out such a master's program.

Our students study one foreign language. But how?

In addition to the General course, students master the practical course, master the skills of translation, registration of business papers in a foreign language and the specifics of the English language used in international negotiations).
