

Public law studies

Immanuel Kant Baltic Federal University

Language of study: Russian

Mode of study: full-time

Duration: 2 years

Availability of free education: no

Price: 2 270 USD per year

During this course of study, you will get acquainted with the most relevant political and legal issues and aspects of the public legal sphere, as well as gain in-depth knowledge of the problems of the relationship between economic processes and the process of exercising public power. In-depth knowledge of the law-making process and anti-corruption expertise of projects and legal acts, as well as in the field of human rights protection, will allow you to devise modern models of state and legal policies with subsequent analytical and regulatory support.

Specializations within this programme

What will I study?

- Philosophy of law
- Business foreign language
- History and methodology of legal science
- History of political and legal doctrines
- Modern problems of public power in the practice of the Constitutional Court of the Russian Federation
- Comparative constitutional law
- Public service: problems of legal regulation
- Protection of human rights and freedoms
- Administrative process