

Production and curatorship of museum projects

Immanuel Kant Baltic Federal University

Language of study: Russian

Mode of study: full-time

Duration: 2 years

Availability of free education: no

Price: 2 500 USD per year

During the course of study, you will learn more about world trends in the museum sector and about the world of contemporary art and modern museum practices. You will be able to develop your managerial skills by discovering new approaches to research, working with museum audiences, and gaining knowledge in the history of foreign and Russian art, art theory and aesthetics, along with the basics of PR and marketing in the cultural sphere. You will also learn more about such topics as the practical aspects of working with museum projects, the basics of fundraising, exhibition-related activities, producing public programs and curating work. This knowledge will allow you to effectively organize museum projects and educational courses.

Specializations within this programme

What will I study?

- Art history
- Art theory and aesthetics
- Museum studies
- Fundraising
- Economics and finance in the field of culture
- PR and marketing of museum projects
- Exhibition-related activities
- Digital space of the modern museum