Degree – Researcher. Instructor-researcher

The post-graduate degree program is taught in Russian.

Post-graduate students are trained for research and teaching at higher education institutions, as well as for work in a wide range of areas that require philological competencies.

The program involves studying different types of texts in their historical and theoretical aspects: Russian and foreign fiction literature, publicism, literary criticism, folklore; texts created in various epochs, including those published in mass media and electronic media.
