The course "Vacation in Tomsk" allows you to quickly learn the Russian languages to the level of everyday communication. The program is aimed at foreign students who begin and continue to learn the Russian language (levels A0 - B1).

The course includes 2 stages:

1. Online format (3 weeks) includes the Russian grammar learning. During this time, you will receive a solid grammatical base and overcome the language barrier;
2. Offline format (3 weeks) implies full immersion in the language environment. You will practice the knowledge you'll gain online.

An important part of the course is extracurricular activities: excursions, master classes, speaking clubs, meetings with tutors – all of this help to improve your communication skills.

Classes are taught by leading experts in the field of teaching Russian as a foreign language.

The express course of the Russian language "Vacation in Tomsk" is a complete immersion in the language environment and culture of Russia. We provide student's support 24/7 online and offline - new technologies and methods of communication. And, of course, a unique teaching method and an individual approach to everyone.
